

Protest Code of Conduct

6 June 2026 · Jantar Mantar, New Delhi

WHY WE'RE HERE

We are at Jantar Mantar to demand accountability for the paper leaks and the broken evaluation system, and for the Education Minister to resign. This is an open call. Anyone can join, but leave your party and organisation banners at home. We are here as citizens, and we keep it peaceful.

1 When you arrive

- Make your own way straight to Jantar Mantar. Don't gather anywhere else first.
- Find a marshal when you get there. They are coordinating on the ground and will know the plan for the day.
- Organisers are sorting out permission with the police. If they ask you to wait or hold back, listen to them. Don't push ahead on your own.

2 The ground rules

- No violence. Not with your hands, not with your words, not even when someone is trying to push your buttons. Everything we want depends on this.
- Leave anything that could pass for a weapon at home. Knives, sticks, poles, glass bottles, all of it.
- Don't damage the monument, the road, or anyone's property.
- Treat everyone with respect. No slurs, no harassment, no exceptions.
- If a marshal asks you to move, sit, or step back, do it without arguing.

If someone tries to provoke you

- Walk away. Don't argue back and don't throw a punch.
- Some people come to make us look bad, and a few may be sent to do exactly that. Don't give them the moment they are after. Point them out to a marshal instead.
- Don't get pulled into fights about who funds us or who anyone used to vote for. That is the distraction. Keep it on the demand.

3 If the police approach

- Let the liaison do the talking. Everyone else stays calm and quiet.
- If you are detained, don't resist. Note the officer's number, let the observers record what happens, and let the lawyers deal with it afterwards.
- If they give a lawful order to clear out, we leave together and calmly.
- We don't block the road and we don't camp overnight. We make our point and we leave the place as we found it.

4 Look after yourself and each other

- If you are under 18, be careful and come with a parent or an adult you trust if you possibly can. Stay close to them and don't head off on your own.
- Come with a friend, or buddy up with someone when you arrive. Pick a spot to meet if you get separated.
- Put a passcode on your phone and turn off face and fingerprint unlock. Don't post close-ups of other people's faces.
- It will be hot. Drink water, find shade, and keep an eye on anyone who looks unwell.

BRING

- A book, and the national flag if you have one. The book is what this is about.
- Flowers to offer the police. It is how we show, in the open, that we come in peace.
- Water, a snack, ID, any medication, some cash
- A charged phone, a power bank, and the legal-aid number on your arm

DON'T BRING

- Weapons or anything resembling one
- Alcohol or drugs
- Banners or anything meant to provoke

WHATEVER HAPPENS, STAY PEACEFUL AND STAY TOGETHER
